

The virtual nanotechnology laboratory

Starting from a joint inventory of available nanotechnology infrastructure/ facilities and know how, the final objective of the virtual nanotechnology laboratory will be to enable the efficient use of equipment within the network through coordination of investments, a common pricing methodology for inter-network use of facilities and clearly defined fields of expertise for all facilities cooperating in the network.

For more information, please get in touch with the work package leader, Carmen Bartic, Carmen.bartic@imec.be